Julius Berger Extends CSR Initiative

THE COMPANY IS CREATING LASTING LEGACIES, ELATED SCHOOL PRINCIPAL DECLARES

It was palpable excitement during the week, when the nation's engineering construction leader, Julius Berger Nigeria Plc, further raised its Corporate Social Responsibility efforts by donating classroom desks and chairs to students at another school in the FCT, Government Secondary School Gwarinpa, Lifecamp, FCT, Abuja, as part of its sustained contributions to schools in its host communities. Julius Berger had done similar act in some schools in the Federal Capital City.

Addressing pupils and staff of the school, the leader of Julius Berger CSR team at the event, Mr. Kola Balogun said the aim of the donation was to help provide a conducive learning environment for students. He said, "at Julius Berger Nigeria Plc, the students' wellbeing has always been our major concern and providing the necessary essential materials for a conducive learning environment remains our priority. We are here to enable the students to put more efforts into their education through these donations."

Responding, the Principal of the School, Mrs. Irene Mojisola Akerele, appreciated the efforts made by the company saying, "Julius Berger for the third time, has made a donation to our school and I want to sincerely appreciate the company for its efforts and contributions. Previously, Julius Berger donated books to our students through their literacy campaign initiative to assist the student's zeal for writing and reading. The company also gave us a beautiful basketball court and now, the company has donated classroom chairs and desks for our students. These donations are remarkable contributions to our school by Julius Berger. Thank you, Julius Berger."
